CASH Oregon in the Community...

The Portland Business Journal's "Book of Giving"

The Bank of America and the Portland Business Journal have given CASH Oregon the opportunity to tell about what we do and who we help in the 2010-2011 Book of Giving.

From free tax preparation to promoting earned income credits for working families, our mission is to improve the financial health of low income families and individuals.

We at CASH Oregon want to say thank you to Rich Brown and Monique Barton at the Bank of America for sponsoring the page. Also to the Portland Business Journal for placing it, allowing us the chance to be able to spread our mission and message, and to encourage others to share in our return on hope for our local communities.

We would also like to thank Anne Saunders and Tim Cohrs and his team at Knowledge Learning Corporation for their help with the design of the advertisement, and also with the design of our beautiful new logo.

During these rough economic times, reaching out to those who truly need it is most important.

Through volunteer's hard work, and donations from local government, businesses and citizens, CASH Oregon will be able to continue helping out through our free tax preparation programs and promotion of the EITC.

Be sure to get a copy of the Portland Business Journal coming out Friday, November 5th.

It's Volunteer Recruitment Season!

Our need for volunteers for the 2010/2011 season is urgent due to the ever increasing demand for free tax preparation. No prior tax knowledge is necessary, just a desire to help your local community. The positions we need volunteers for include tax preparers, greeters and translators. Please consider speaking with your friends about volunteering.

The first step is to go online at www.CASHOregon.org and fill out an application.

We will send information on all of the next steps needed to ensure a positive and fulfilling volunteer experience.

Call Camille McDaniel at 503.243.7765 or email her at Camille@CashOregon.org if you are interested in getting more information about volunteering for Tax-Aide this season!

New Faces At CASH Oregon

We've Been Growing...

We have been joined by a couple new faces that we would like to introduce. Our new Development Director, Shannon Wilkey, comes to us with great experience and a fresh eye that will surely be able to keep CASH Oregon going full speed ahead.

Also, we have had the wonderful chance to work with Steps to Success to bring on our new intern, Misha Staggs. Our new volunteers will get to know her quickly as she will be calling many of them to welcome them to Tax-Aide.

We look forward to tax season and beyond as we will get a chance to work together and become the great team CASH Oregon is known for.

Our free Tax-Preparation program is done in partnership with
AARP Tax-Aide.

CASH Oregon has begun using some great social media to reach out to friends in the community. Please take a moment to look at our Facebook page under CASHOregon, and on Twitter. Thanks to Matt Kinshella at 211info for his input and help.
